FROM THE PASTORS DESK

Furloughs and Fiscal Challenges

As you have heard in the bulletin beginning in July your parish staff will begin taking furlough days in order for the Parish to have a balanced budget. Your finance committee and pastoral council sincerely hope that our Sunday offerings will be sufficient to delay the furloughs and restore the hours of ministry and service provided by your part time and full time staff. During the 2010-2011 budget year we will need 13,000 per week in Sunday stewardship offerings to balance the budget and relax the furloughs.

Thank You Knights of Columbus

As we come to the midpoint of our 50th Anniversary celebrations, I want to thank the Knights for their support for the 50th Anniversary celebrations. Our Anniversary Committee led by Becky Doe and Sr. Joan Gallagher have provided us with memorable anniversary events with more to come this Autumn. Thank you Knights and Anniversary Committee.

Graduates Say Thank You To Parish

Continuing a tradition going back several years the graduating class of 2010 is saying thank you to OLG. In a few weeks a statue of Mary will be greeting you as you enter the church. I want to thank our graduates and wish them every blessing as they enter their High School journeys.

During a Time of Educational Challenge- Thank You OLG School

It is my personal opinion that the challenge of educating our American youth is among our most serious National concerns. So much attention is being focused on education in our country and I welcome every effort to raise the educational standards among our youth.

My personal and pastoral concern in this area lead me to pay special tribute to our own school faculty, staff and lay leaders as the school year closes. I want to thank Kristin Dixon our principal and her faculty for their excellence as educators and their witness to the values of the Gospel and our church.

Parish Library

As we wait for summers arrival, perhaps you are thinking of summer reading. Along with a good beach novel or two, consider the excellent spiritual, biblical and personal renewal offerings in our parish library located conveniently just beyond the men's restroom in the church.

What do you like about OLG? What could we do better?

This week members of your pastoral council are asking for your perspective on the parish. Your input today will guide their work and help me in guiding the future of OLG. I am grateful for the work of all our parish and school committees and commissions.

-Fr. Jack

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

THIS WEEK: STEWARDSHIP SIGHTINGS AT OLG

Stewardship in Scripture

Stewardship has been described as the “pull and power of the Gospel come alive” by the US Bishops. Stewardship is grounded in the gospel message and as such it is reflected in some way in the readings (Old Testament, New Testament Letter, Gospel) we hear proclaimed each Sunday. Here is a look at one of the readings for this weekend through a “stewardship” lens.

June 13th (from Luke's Gospel)

“Accompanying him were...Joanna, the wife of Herod's steward Chuza, Susanna, and many others who provided for them out of their resources.” Recognizing the abundance of God's love, compassion, and forgiveness offered through and by Jesus an intentional community forms to support the ministry of Jesus with their resources. The message of stewardship is about being intentional in our participation in parish, community and family life. It is about supporting all of these in some way with our resources of time, talent and treasure.

Stewardship Sighting

What questions, thoughts, and comments do you have as you hear about the continuing development of our parish community? This second phase will focus on expanding the breadth and scope of our mission through a Parish Life Center / Gym to be built on the large parking lot just to the north of our Church. Building for Our Future receptions are being held after each Mass this weekend. Active participation in these receptions by bringing your questions, thoughts and comments forward and sharing them with parish leadership is stewardship. Engaging in conversation and dialog about concerns as well as hopes and dreams is stewardship. Actively listening and seeking to understand the answers you receive is stewardship. Come and be a stewardship sighting
