Easter Praise And Thanksgiving

A week after the most significant celebrations of the church year, I want to express the community's gratitude for all who worked so hard to make our Holy Week so meaningful. Did you notice how the environment of our worship space was transformed daily with a noble simplicity? Thank you Arts and Environment Committee.

Who could forget the amazing music provided by our choir and cantors. Ann Sager, what a blessing you are along with the community of voices and musicians. Thank you.

Thank you Helen Oesterle for organizing all the other ministries and services, such as readers, Eucharistic ministers, sacristan and servers. Without these many willing hands, I fear that the Lord would still be in the tomb.

Thank you to you the assembly of believers who came to share your faith and to participate in the liturgy of the church. Thank you. Now we prepare to keep understanding the meaning of Easter during these glorious weeks following the celebration of our salvation.
